DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Christopher Tanner on 9/24/2008.

Claim 7 is changed from "The device of claim 6, wherein ... to the bus" to "The device of claim 1, wherein ... to the bus".

Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present invention is directed to an audio DVD-CD device. Each independent claim identifies the uniquely distinct features "the priority scheme is set up so that no device monopolizes the bus, thereby avoiding the starving of the other devices; and further the arbitrator has a queuing module designed to share the bus so that no device attached therein uses more than approximately 40% of the bus's total available bandwidth" and "the various components of the playback system are either located on one integrated circuit die or are separate non-integrated components in any combination; the playback system accepts data from pre-fabricated CD/DVD modules that already have all the logic for sensing data from the disc lenses, motors, and optical devices, so that the OPU, motor, error detector, and control subsystem are unused and instead the disc lenses, motors, and optical devices are connected directly to the pre-fabricated disc sensing mechanisms". The closest prior art, Nonaka et al. (US 2001/0026504 A1), Yamamoto (US 6,262,545 B1), Tanihira et al. (5,828,859), Aatresh (6,067,301), and Chen (US 2004/0005145 A1) disclose conventional audio DVD-CD device, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
